

S. 1704 – First Higher Education Extension Act of 2007

Floor Situation

S. 1704 is expected to be considered on the floor under unanimous consent today. This legislation passed the Senate by unanimous consent on June 27, 2007. It was introduced by Senator Ted Kennedy (D-MA) on the same day.

Note: The House passed a four-month extension (H.R. 2559) by voice vote on June 6, 2007. H.R. 2559 has not been considered by the Senate.

Summary

S. 1704 extends the Higher Education Extension Act of 2005 (P.L. 109-81) through July 31, 2007; it currently is set to expire on June 30, 2007.

Background

The Higher Education Act of 1965 was part of President Lyndon Johnson's Great Society domestic agenda. The goal of this Act was "to strengthen the educational resources of our colleges and universities and to provide financial assistance for students in postsecondary and higher education."

The Higher Education Act authorizes the federal government's student aid programs to support postsecondary education attendance. It also authorizes other major programs such as those providing assistance to special groups of Institutions of Higher Education and support services to enable disadvantaged students to complete secondary school and enter and complete college.

The Higher Education Act of 1965 was reauthorized in 1968, 1972, 1976, 1980, 1986, 1992, and 1998. In 2003, many of the programs in the Act were extended through June 30, 2007.

Cost

The Congressional Budget Office has not scored this legislation.
